KENT After graduating from college, Dan Kent learned the ins and outs of the construction industry while working for a large building company. In 1989 Dan founded Kent Homes, a residential building company specializing in single family homes.

Celebrating 20 years of building in the Coastal Carolinas, Kent Homes has redefined the concept of luxury homes. The Kent approach combines the features, craftsmanship and details you expect in a truly fine home with two elements you might be surprised to find ---a simplified process and sensible pricing!

From its founding in 1989, Kent Homes was structured to provide an overall building experience that would earn rave reviews from clients. Kent Homes achieves this level of satisfaction by handling all aspects under one roof, thereby maintaining control and accountability from beginning to end. The entire company is committed to providing an atmosphere of trust between builder and homeowner, with fairness, honesty and open communication easing the process. We are delighted to welcome Dan and his team at Kent Homes to the Showcase of Homes at Woodlands Park!
